

The New Jersey "Do Not Call" program is one of the few places where i can actually experience my hard earned tax dollars at work. I feel i should be able to control what kind of phone calls come into my home. I also do not think that just by doing business with a company, that company should be able to bypass my wish of NOT receiving telemarketing calls.